PIANO
COMPETITION

Edmonton, Alberta

May 15th - 17th

2014

HISTORY

Establishment of the Shean Competition for Strings and Piano was made possible by a generous grant to the Edmonton Community Foundation by Ranald and Vera Shean in 1996.

Ranald and Vera Shean were highly respected musicians and teachers in Edmonton. Both are members of the City's Cultural Hall of Fame. Ranald passed away in 1997; Vera in 2005.

Strings were featured in the Competition's inaugural year, 1996, with the first piano competition two years later.

The Competition is open to young amateur musicians, from 15 to 28 years of age who are residents of Canada currently studying here, or abroad OR, non-resident students now studying in Canada for a minimum of two school years.

Six semi-finalists will be selected from the discs submitted. The Semi-finals and Finals will be held in Edmonton from May 15 to 17, 2014 at Muttart Hall, MacEwan University, Alberta College Campus.

COMPETITION WINNER

The winner of the Shean Piano Competition will be invited to perform with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra at a future date.

JURY

Two distinguished panels of judges shall preside: one for the Preliminary Round and a second for the Semi-finals and Finals.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Shean Competition is managed by the Shean Trust Committee and the Executive Director of the Edmonton Kiwanis Music Festival. Any changes regarding Competition arrangements will be made without prior notice.
2. Competitors must be amateur musicians between the ages of 15 and 28 years. The competitor's age is determined as of JANUARY 1st of the year of the PRELIMINARY ROUND.
3. Competitors must be residents of Canada currently studying here, or abroad; OR non-resident students now studying in Canada for a minimum of two school years.
4. Competitors must provide their own assisting artist and will be responsible for all expenses — for both the assisting artist and competitor.
5. For the preliminary round, music MUST be on the CD in the order given, i.e. concerto, Bach, sonata and Romantic work. In the semi-final round, competitors may choose the order, but must submit the chosen order of repertoire to be performed, including timing, BWV number, Opus number and titles of movements where applicable.
6. All music in the semi-final and final rounds must be memorized.
7. Failure to comply with all competition requirements automatically disqualifies a competitor.
8. In case of illness or accident certified by a medical doctor, a certificate must be provided and a portion of the competitor's fee may be refunded.
9. The Jury reserves the right withhold ANY award.
10. Competitors must not be related to any Jury member, nor have studied with a Jury member within the previous 2 years prior to the Competition dates - excluding Master Classes.
11. Decisions of the Jury at every stage of the Competition will be final and not subject to appeal, review or question.
12. The Shean Competition reserves the right to produce archival recordings of the semi-final and final rounds for the promotion of the Competition.
13. Applications are to be mailed in and will NOT be accepted electronically. The Competition Office cannot assume responsibility for any application lost in the mail.
14. If a competitor is not selected for the semi-finals, discs and photographs will be returned.
